1. Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

FPP is a human rights organisation that defends the rights of forest peoples. We have NGO Consultative Status at the UN (ECOSOC) and have field projects in some 22 countries around the tropics providing legal, technical and advocacy support to forest peoples whose rights are threatened by imposed policies and investments.

1.2 What activities has your organisation undertaken to publicise programmes to support the RSPO, RSPO certification, the uptake of RSPO-certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products, or to support good standing RSPO members during the reporting period?

FPP is a member of IUCN, HCVRN, HCSA, TFA, TFD and POIG. In all these forums FPP promotes systems for the production of palm oil which respect internationally recognised human rights. We seek to identify companies' operations or national laws or policies which directly or indirectly threaten those rights.

We expect to undertake the following actions.

1. Continued involvement in the RSPO Committees Working Groups and Task Forces as above.
2. Continued attendance at Board of Governors meetings.
3. Continued involvement in NI WG.
4. Attendance at RT and European RT.
5. Continued promotion of Jurisdictional Approaches while ensuring they secure forest peoples' rights and livelihoods
6. Pursuit of complaints against RSPO members operating in violation of the P&C.
7. Development of materials that explain RSPO standards and procedures of relevance to communities.

Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility indicators will be done through several channels, including ACOP. As the implementation of Shared Responsibility reporting is still on-going and in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP is not yet final and may change in future ACOP cycles. For more information on Shared Responsibility, please go to <https://rspo.org/news-and-events/news/what-are-the-new-shared-responsibility-rules> or email the ACOP team at acop@rspo.org
