Since 2015, we have collaborated with International Finance Corporation (IFC), a member of the World Bank, to engage smallholders around four of our mills. These mills were chosen as they source largely from independent smallholders. Together, IFC and Musim Mas kickstarted the Indonesian Palm Oil Development for Smallholders programme to integrate smallholders into sustainable palm oil supply chains. The programme has four main pillars:
1. Good Agricultural Practices (GAP): Musim Mas shares their GAP applied on their own plantations to smallholders. This includes practices on fertilizing, pruning, and harvesting better to increase yield and the quality of FFB.
2. Replanting Support: Musim Mas helps to increase financial access for smallholders who require additional income during the replanting period. This includes exploring alternative livelihoods or streams of income, financial literacy, and linking them to the government subsidies and banks
3. Market Access: Musim Mas helps to increase market access of the smallholders to mills by grouping them and empowering them to undergo sustainable certification, such as RSPO. As quality/authentic fertilizer is challenging for smallholders to purchase, Musim Mas also offers assistance with their access to fertilizer.
4. Land legitimacy: Confirm legality of smallholders' land titles. The Indonesian Palm Oil Development for Smallholders programme is the largest palm oil smallholder programme in Indonesia, having engaged over 30,000 independent smallholders across North Sumatra and Riau.
We have expanded this model of engagement with independent smallholders and applied it to four of our other own mills and two third-party mills. Additionally, we have engaged Rainforest Alliance to implement an independent smallholder programme in South Sumatra (Musi Banyuasin), with the same goal of integrating smallholders into sustainable palm oil supply chains. The project involves 525 smallholder since 2016. Building on our experience, we have developed a "Smallholder Hub" approach, where we train local governmental village agricultural officers (penyuluh) in a district to train their smallholders. In 2020, we established a Smallholders Hub as part of a landscape project with IDH in Aceh Tamiang. We have trained 44 governmental agricultural officers and trained 16 farmer leaders in Aceh Tamiang. In 2021, we established our second Smallholders Hub in a collaboration with General Mills.

7.1.1 Please provide the names and locations of the oil palm Independent Smallholder groups that you are currently supporting. This question is not mandatory, and is left to the discretion of the RSPO member to answer.

8. Actions For Next Reporting Period

8.1 Outline activities that your company will undertake in the coming year to advance its certification efforts.

Our approach to advancing our certification efforts is influenced by the profile of our supply base, which includes (A) Our own supply, (B) Third-party supplier groups and (C) Smallholders. The roadmap here outlines our strategy towards a responsible supply base: https://www.musimmas.com/sustainability/ndpe-roadmap/

We are also actively exploring collaborations with external parties to scale up the impact of our certification efforts, especially on a landscape level and via our Smallholders Hub approach.

8.2 Outline activities that your company will undertake in the coming year to promote the uptake CSPO along the supply chain.

Musim Mas will continue actively promoting the RSPO as a credible pathway to demonstrating responsible sourcing. On the production side, we will continue to support growers, including smallholders, adopting sustainable practices and achieve RSPO certification. We remain acutely aware of the limitations of voluntary schemes such as the RSPO, but are confident in the value of certification. On the demand side, we work with non-profit groups such as WWF China, PM Haze in Singapore and FONAP in Europe to raise the awareness for uptake.

3. TimeBound Plan

3.1 Which year did your company achieve/obtain (or expects to achieve/obtain) the RSPO supply chain certification or RSPO trader/distributor licence?

2009

3.2 Which year did your company start (or expect to start) to source any RSPO-certified palm oil and oil palm products?

2009

3.2.1 If the previous target year has not been met, please explain why.

3.3 Which year did your company achieve (or expects to achieve) 100% RSPO certification of all palm product processing facilities.

2020

3.3.1 If the previous target year has not been met, please explain why.

3.4 Year expected to only source 100% RSPO-certified palm oil and oil palm products.

2030

3.4.1 If target has not been met, please explain why.

Musim Mas has met its targets of certifying its facilities 1 year earlier than originally planned. Sourcing 100% RSPO-certified will remain a goal as long as certified production remains lower than the capacity of the RSPO P&T members, and as long as the demand potential remains lower than both the certified production and the certified P&T capacity. The organisation is commited to the RSPO ambition of certified palm oil becoming the market norm and will reflect again on its time bound plan on how to deliver on this commitment. The organisation has made significant progress in making sustainable palm oil available to the market place and also extended its sustainability commitments to its third party supply chain whereby the objective is to engage more parties in the sustainable palm oil production and to make it the norm.

3.5 If the TimeBound Plan commitments declared above do not cover all countries in which the member operates, please explain why

4. Actions For Next Reporting Period

4.1 Please outline activities that your company will take in the coming year to promote the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)

Musim Mas will continue actively promoting the RSPO as a credible pathway to demonstrating responsible sourcing. On the production side, we will continue to support growers, including smallholders, adopting sustainable practices and achieve RSPO certification. We remain acutely aware of the limitations of voluntary schemes such as the RSPO, but are confident in the value of certification.
