1. Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

The National Edible Oils Distributors Association (NEODA) is a UK based trade association who's members include Oils and Fats refiners, processors, distributors and waste oil collectors (who also sell fresh oil).

The main objective of the association is to promote the interests of its members and also to raise standards across the UK trade. We also help educate members and their customers to factors affecting the industry.

1.2 What activities has your organisation undertaken to promote sustainable palm oil, the RSPO and/or RSPO members in the reporting period?

NEODA is an active member of the UK roundtable of sustainable palm oil and works closely with the RSPO and EFECA (Economics Climate Environment). We have working with our members since 2010 and include sustainability as one of our main topics at our AGM.

We have now included a commitment to 100% segregated palm oil into our codes of practice.

1.3 What percentage of your organisation's overall activities focus on palm oil?

20.0%

1.4 Did members of your organisation participate in RSPO working groups and/or taskforces in the reporting period?

No

1.5 Does your organisation have any past or on-going collaborations with public or private sector palm oil industry players to support them in their efforts to increase the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)?

Yes

1.6 How is your organisation's work on palm oil funded?

We are a trade association, funded by our members who include Sime Derby, ADM, Cargill and AAK.

2. Actions for Next Reporting Period

2.1 Please outline activities that your organisation will take in the coming year to promote the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)

We held our latest AGM at Chester Zoo to promote further the cause of the RSPO and sourcing sustainable palm oil.

Now we have implemented the new codes of practice, we will support our members to move to 100% sustainable palm oil by the end of 2022.
