1. Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

WWF Indonesia is a conservation organization, we have been engaging with sustainable palm oil practices since it was started. WWF Indonesia has been supporting sustainable palm oil practices through RSPO from the perspective of environmental aspects. Our role is to support the transformation from conventional palm oil production practices into sustainable palm oil practices with mission in deforestation free palm oil supply chain, legality, and implementation of traceability system.

On the market and demand side we also promote and engaging downstream level company to use and increasing their CSPO product sourcing. we actively collaboration with community and other actors to promote and campaign related sustainable palm oil product.

1.2 What activities has your organisation undertaken to publicise programmes to support the RSPO, RSPO certification, the uptake of RSPO-certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products, or to support good standing RSPO members during the reporting period?

WWF Indonesia currently focusing its activities and interventions on promoting sustainable production and consumption in the palm oil industry. WWF Indonesia is actively promoting sustainable production of palm oil through various programs and projects in several conservation priority landscapes across Indonesia (based on strategic plan WWF Indonesia). The main goals is actually to taking deforestation out of palm oil supply chains. Having this target WWF Indonesia works to create innovation and combined approach of landscape and jurisdiction by working with many stakeholders along the supply chains. WWF Indonesia constantly working with independent smallholder in order to increase their capacity and awareness of sustainable oil palm practices and at the end can be complied with RSPO Principles and Criteria. The develop capacity building aims to developed farmers capacities consecutively conducted within the reporting period. In line with this, to get bigger buy in from the local authorities/government, WWF Indonesia provided training for the local extension agents. To date WWF Indonesia works with six independent smallholder group in Pelalawan District, Kuantan Sengingi district in Riau province as well as in Sintang District, Kapuas Hulu District, and Melawi District in West Kalimantan Province. Several projects also targeted and intervened the policy works at the sub-national and national level. At the same time, WWF Indonesia works closely with Sintang district local government in helping them to shape sustainable development strategy, especially to achieve RSPO certification. Meanwhile in Kapuas Hulu and Melawi, WWF Indonesia conduct intervention that targeted the spatial planning policy and capacity building for independent smallholders towards ISPO and RSPO readiness. Regarding Sustainable palm oil consumption, the main idea is to increase RSPO / CSPO uptake in Indonesia domestic market.

There are two main initiatives being conducted in this regards. The first initiative is to approach retails, brand owners as well as food services chains to move forward and commit to source CSPO for Indonesia market. At the moment WWF Indonesia has been discussed with several retails on how to improve their procurement policy and there is one retailer that already committed to source sustainable palm oil for its home-brand cooking oil. WWF Indonesia role on this initiative is to connect retails with the RSPO certified suppliers. Others main WWF Indonesia approach in the first initiative is developing to implement of traceability pilot project to prevent deforestation with involving main buyers in global with its supply chain on the landscape. The main aim this project is to protect remain forest in National Park Tesso Nilo by closing access to mills with currently by FFB of unknown provenance. The second initiative is consumer campaign to improve end-user's awareness on sustainable product, particularly palm oil-based product. This initiative was started in 2015 also in collaboration with RSPO Indonesia. WWF continues to improve the way we campaign sustainable demand in order to put pressure from the end-users on sustainable palm oil based product to be available in domestic market.

WWF Indonesia is collaborate with financial institution through sustainable finance first movers pledge for banks. eight national banks representing 46% of national banking asset signed an MoU with WWF Indonesia in end of 2019. (currently IKBI have 14 banks members)
