1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

Inter Sea Maghreb Sarl was established in 2001 as a marine consultant, damage evaluator and petrochemical cargo inspector based in the head office in Tunisia and have branch offices at Libya, Algeria, Morocco and Mauritania. Our company has expanded over the years to include new areas, including Europe and the Middle East.

The company is directed from Tunisia and all operations are monitored closely so that we can keep clients updated all the times. We take pride in being able to contact clients after hours if they require news about their vessel's loading or discharging operation, international operations are also supported by our administration and accounting staff based in Tunisia.

ISM staff includes, chief marine surveyor, chief cargo inspector, petroleum chemists and expert witnesses. Our directors who oversee daily operations have extensive experience with two major international oil companies so we believe we are one of the most technically competent companies.

In addition to our staff who operate only in their immediate areas we have Tunisian based staff who will travel anywhere in the North Africa at short notice to attend the loading or discharging of a vessel on a single operation basis. These staff will also carry out shore installation inspections and supply in-depth reports on the procedures at such installation. Beginning in 2017 a new branch at Egypt will be opened with a head office in Damietta city. It is one of the most leading,
