2.5 According to the volume information you have provided in Question 2.2 and Question 2.4, your company's Certified Sustainable Palm Oil uptake is:

100.00%

2.5.1 Please provide additional information on your certified palm oil, palm kernel oil and related products uptake. This may include your usage of RSPO Credits to cover gaps in certified uptake, changes due to business environment, variations due to stock positions or efforts to support independent smallholders beyond volume commitments.

In 2023, US Foods maintained its commitment that all palm or palm kernel oil used in any Exclusive Brand products must be certified, at a minimum, RSPO Mass Balance, or an equivalent standard like the Rainforest Alliance Sustainable Agriculture Standard. In 2023, no equivalent standard or RSPO credits were required. US Foods Exclusive Brands are brands that are owned and controlled by US Foods (more information is available about our Exclusive Brands at https://www.usfoods.com/about-us-foods/our-brands.html). Additionally, 3%, by volume, of US Foods Exclusive Brand products containing palm oil, palm kernel oil and/or palm oil derivatives used palm oil or related ingredients certified at a combination of RSPO supply chain models. Because US Foods is unable in such instances to determine volume specific to each supply chain model, we assume that the majority supply chain model in such instances is Mass Balance and have included all palm oil, palm kernel oil and/or palm oil derivatives used in these products in our Mass Balance volumes.

Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility (SR) requirements will be done through ACOP and MyRSPO. As the process of verification of the reports is in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP may change in future ACOP cycles. Evidence to show compliance to the SR requirements shall be uploaded via your membership profile in MyRSPO. Please login to your MyRSPO account and upload the relevant policies, plans and relevant reports there. If you do not have a policy or your policy does not cover all items, you will be required to provide a Declaration of Support for the relevant policy items in your MyRSPO profile.
