1. Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

Humana Child Society Sabah is a Malaysia-based NGO that provides education at the kindergarten and primary levels. The society aims to promote, provide, and operate learning centers in Sabah, especially for children living on plantations and undocumented children in urban settings, and also to prevent these children from being involved in child labour. Humana cooperates with these plantations and operates under a permit provided by the Ministry of Education of Malaysia.

1.2 What activities has your organisation undertaken to publicise programmes to support the RSPO, RSPO certification, the uptake of RSPO-certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products, or to support good standing RSPO members during the reporting period?

Humana learning centers indirectly promote sustainable palm oil by providing education centers in most of the RSPO members' plantations in Sabah. This helps to reduce workers' turnover in the plantation, as workers are assured of their children's education up to a certain age or level. A stable workforce will result in higher productivity for the plantations. Besides, Humana ensures that the RSPO criteria with regard to education are followed.

1.3 What percentage of your organisation's overall activities focus on palm oil?

98.0%

1.4 Did members of your organisation participate in RSPO working groups and/or taskforces during the reporting period?

Yes

1.5 Does your organisation have any collaborations with public or private sector palm oil industry players to support them in their efforts to increase the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)?

No

1.6 How is your organisation's work on palm oil funded?

Humana Child Aid Society Sabah is mainly funded by the monthly contributions received from the plantations. Since 2017, Humana did not receive any sponsorships or grants from the outsiders but did receive small contribution from individuals and companies.
