Others

We do not have Palm-Oil in our own-brand products

5. Actions for Next Reporting Period

5.1 Please outline activities that your company will take in the coming year to promote the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)

We have already started to demand from our suppliers that they use certified palm-oil in products where palm-oil is necessary, and implemented a routine which already had us change to a new supplier of cookies, since the old one chose not to address the matter seriously. We will continue in the same pace this year, and keep demanding certified palm oil in the products we buy. _____

6. Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility indicators will be done through several channels, including ACOP. As the implementation of Shared Responsibility reporting is still on-going and in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP is not yet final and may change in future ACOP cycles. For more information on Shared Responsibility, please go to <https://rspo.org/news-and-events/news/what-are-the-new-shared-responsibility-rules> or email the ACOP team at acop@rspo.org

- Awareness of RSPO in the market
- Difficulties in the certification process
- Certification of smallholders
- Competition with non-RSPO members
- High costs in achieving or adhering to certification
- Human rights issues
- Insufficient demand for RSPO-certified palm oil
- Low usage of palm oil
- Reputation of palm oil in the market
- Reputation of RSPO in the market
- Supply issues
- Traceability issues
- No challenges faced
- Others

As previously stated, we do not have many products with palm oil, and no production whatsoever. Most of our suppliers of products that may have palm-oil (Soap, Candles, Cookies and HVO100) are aware of the matter and have clear policies promoting the usage of certified palm-oil. To us demanding certified oil rarely lead to further discussion. In most cases, we are provided with letter of intent or a policy addressing palm-oil issues without delays. In rare cases where a supplier do not adress this issue seriously, there are other suppliers to work with.

7.2 In addition to the actions already reported in this ACOP report, what other ways has your company supported the vision of the RSPO to transform markets to make sustainable palm oil the norm?

- Engagement with business partners or consumers on the use of CSPO
- Engagement with government agencies
- Promotion of CSPO outside of RSPO venues such as trade workshops or industry associations
- Promotion of physical CSPO
- Providing funding or support for CSPO development efforts
- Research & Development support
- Stakeholder engagement
- No actions taken
