 ${\bf 3.6\ How\ does\ your\ company\ proactively\ promote\ RSPO\ and\ RSPO\ certified\ sustainable\ palm\ oil\ and\ oil\ palm\ products\ to\ your\ customers?}$

We are continuously working with our customers to promote sustainable palm oil, and to educate consumers and retailers about all the sustainability efforts and actions required by the certification. We are active on social media posting articles and studies to educate consumers on the positive side of oil palm as a crop. Finally, we participate in public conferences where we can share our sustainable approach to the palm oil production with other industry stakeholders.

5. Shared Responsibility

No

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility indicators will be done through several channels, including ACOP. As the implementation of Shared Responsibility reporting is still on-going and in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP is not yet final and may change in future ACOP cycles. For more information on Shared Responsibility, please go to https://rspo.org/news-and-events/news/what-are-the-new-shared-responsibility-rules or email the ACOP team at acop@rspo.org

5.7.2 How is your company supporting them?

Our company works with 9,000 smallholder farmers in Sierra Leone. Not only we assist them with the certification processes (Organic and RSPO standards), but also they benefit from various social projects, which are part of Community Development Action plan. Most of the activities are directed to infrastructure improvement (bridges and roads), support with PPEs and planting materials (such as cover crops and oil palm seedlings). Furthermore, they continuously trained on good agriculture practices, organic principles of fairness and environmental protection, and finally other important social issues such as accessing land rights recognitions from local authorities and health & safety.
