1. Operational Profile

1.1 What are the main activities of your organisation?

The Oklahoma City Zoo is dedicated to the preservation of the Earth's natural resources through conservation, education, awareness and scientific research. To fulfill this goal, the Zoo aids in numerous local, national and international conservation projects. The Zoo cares for 54 endangered or threatened species, and participates in 45 Species Survival Plans administered by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums, which ensure the survival of species globally.

1.2 What activities has your organisation undertaken to publicise programmes to support the RSPO, RSPO certification, the uptake of RSPO-certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products, or to support good standing RSPO members during the reporting period?

We promote the goals of the RSPO and the purchase of certified sustainable palm oil during at least four public awareness events annually. Additionally, we have informational graphics located at several of our animal exhibits to teach guests about the negative effects of unsustainable palm oil production. We added new palm oil awareness graphics at our Sanctuary Asia exhibit, which opened in fall 2018. These graphics also encourage guests to download and use the orangutan friendly palm oil shopping guide app developed by Cheyenne Mountain Zoo. There is also information about RSPO and palm oil on our website.

1.3 What percentage of your organisation's overall activities focus on palm oil?

1.4 Did members of your organisation participate in RSPO working groups and/or taskforces during the reporting period?

Yes

1.5 Does your organisation have any collaborations with public or private sector palm oil industry players to support them in their efforts to increase the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)?

No

1.6 How is your organisation's work on palm oil funded?

Funding for certified sustainable palm oil messaging and salary support for staff engaged in RSPO task force activities comes from our general operating fund and also from our Round Up for Conservation Fund. For this program, guests are asked to round up to the nearest dollar when making purchases.

2. TimeBound Plan

2016

3. Actions for Next Reporting Period

3.1 Please outline activities that your organisation will take in the coming year to promote the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)

We will continue to promote sustainable palm oil through at least four public awareness events annually and through informational graphics. We will continue training volunteers who are stationed regularly at our Sanctuary Asia exhibit to talk about sustainable palm oil and promote the orangutan friendly shopping app. We will distribute shopping guides quarterly that promote purchasing products made with certified sustainable palm oil.

4. Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility indicators will be done through several channels, including ACOP. As the implementation of Shared Responsibility reporting is still on-going and in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP is not yet final and may change in future ACOP cycles. For more information on Shared Responsibility, please go to <https://rspo.org/news-and-events/news/what-are-the-new-shared-responsibility-rules> or email the ACOP team at acop@rspo.org
