3.9 What measures do you take if a client is not meeting the requirements of your policy on palm oil?

Robeco's policy on sustainable palm oil defines the investment criteria for palm oil companies. Per 1 March 2019, Robeco excludes from its investment universe palm oil companies that are not RSPO members or have less than 20% of hectares of plantations certified against the RSPO standard. Companies may be re-included once they meet the 20% minimum threshold. This threshold is increased whereby per 31 December 2021 palm oil companies will be required to have 50% of hectares of plantations RSPO-certified.

3.10 Do you proactively engage with your clients to support and join the RSPO?

Yes

3.11 Did members of your company participate in RSPO working groups and/or taskforces during the reporting period?

Yes

3.12 Does your company have any collaborations with public or private sector palm oil industry players to support them in their efforts to increase the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)?

Yes

3.13 What other activities have your company undertaken to promote RSPO-certified sustainable palm oil and oil palm products during the reporting period?

In 2019, we partnered with Satelligence, a satellite imagery data company that monitors deforestation and other impacts of land use. We will incorporate the imagery data into our engagement program on sustainable palm oil production.

4. Actions for Next Reporting Period

4.1 Please outline activities that your company will take in the coming year to promote the production or consumption of certified sustainable palm oil (CSPO)

In 2019, we have launched a three-year engagement program on sustainable palm oil production. In the coming year of 2020, we will continue our engagement with palm oil producers to promote them to increase the percentage of RSPO-certified plantations to at least 50% by the end of 2021, and ultimately achieve 100% certification.

5. Shared Responsibility

The Board of Governors of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) approved new Shared Responsibility rules on 31 October 2019, requiring all members to share sustainability requirements and obligations. Reporting of Shared Responsibility indicators will be done through several channels, including ACOP. As the implementation of Shared Responsibility reporting is still on-going and in development, the Shared Responsibility section in ACOP is not yet final and may change in future ACOP cycles. For more information on Shared Responsibility, please go to <https://rspo.org/news-and-events/news/what-are-the-new-shared-responsibility-rules> or email the ACOP team at acop@rspo.org
